

The University of Texas at Austin

Center for Middle Eastern Studies, Iranian Studies, Women's and Gender Studies, & Radio-Television-Film Department

present

The Middle East & Communications Lecture Series 2005-2006

Hamid Naficy

Nina J. Cullinan Professor of Art & Art History
Professor of Film and Media Studies
Department of Art History, Rice University

Women in Iranian Postrevolution Cinema

Hamid Naficy, received his Master of Fine Arts degree for UCLA in film and television production and his Ph.D. from UCLA in critical studies in film and television. He has produced many educational films and experimental videos and has published extensively about theories of exile and displacement, exilic and diasporic cinema and media, and Iranian and Third World cinemas.

November 10, 2005

6:00 PM

Eastwoods Room, Texas Student Union 2.102